

Kate Forsyth wrote her first novel aged seven. She has since sold more than a million copies worldwide and been named one of Australia's Favourite 15 Novelists. The Impossible Quest, her fantasy adventure series for children, has been optioned for a film. Kate is a direct descendant of Charlotte Waring Atkinson, the author of the first book for children ever published in Australia. Kate also has a doctorate in fairy tale studies and is an accredited master storyteller. Read more at www.kateforsyth.com.au

Contents of Kate's Suitcase

One sea-serpent
The Impossible Quest - Set of 5 books
One journal of ideas & inspiration
Teacher's Notes - twelve pages of games, riddles & exercises
Two posters (to be returned to the suitcase after use)
1 bag of Tell-Stones
1 bag of magical gifts - flute, ring, brooch & pendant
1 silver quill
Statues of dragon, griffin, unicorn, minotaur & four brave heroes

Costumes
Tom - one green velvet tunic, brown leggings, hood, belt & wrist guard
Sebastian - one black & silver surcoat, plus boots, gloves & hood
Elanor - one green velvet dress
Quinn - one silvery-white dress